

Department: Programs and Services
Section: Special Education

The Annapolis Valley Regional School Board believes that transition planning for students with special needs involves movement to school, from school to school, from elementary to middle level/ junior high school, from middle level/junior high to high school, and high school to community and it is an integral part of the program planning process.

Therefore, Program Planning Teams will provide transition plans for students with special needs to ensure successful passage from one school stage to another.

Specifically:

- The Director of Programs and Services will be responsible for the implementation, monitoring and revision of the policy.
- The policy shall be reviewed annually.
